

28TH– 31TH OF AUGUST ZERMATT FESTIVAL ORCHESTRA at the international piano competition CLARA HASKIL

CLARA-HASKIL- COMPETITION

The internationally renowned Clara Haskil Piano Competition has been held every two years since 1963. It recalls the great Romanian pianist Clara Haskil (1865-1960), who lived in Vevey from 1942 onwards. During this year's final concert, three finalists will be accompanied by the ZERMATT FESTIVAL ORCHESTRA under the direction of Christian Zacharias. The concert will be broadcast live by Radio Télévision Suisse - Espace 2.

Orchestra Schedule

Wednesday 28th of August 2019

Until 2pm: Travel of the orchestra musicians to Fondation Hindemith in Blonay (Switzerland)
Evening: first rehearsals in Blonay.

Thursday 29th of August

Rehearsals with all three finalists in Vevey.

Friday 30th of August

Morning: general rehearsal in Vevey
7:30pm: final concert in Vevey with live radio broadcast.

Saturday 31st of August

Travel from Blonay to Zermatt

The ZERMATT FESTIVAL ORCHESTRA consists of 2019's Zermatt Festival Academy scholarship holders as well as the scholarship holders from last year's Zermatt Festival Academy.

REPERTOIRE

Each finalist will announce which of the following Mozart Piano concertos he or she will perform during the afternoon of the 28th of August:

Mozart Piano concertos KV 271, KV 453, KV 456, KV 459, KV 466, KV 467, KV 482, KV 488, KV 491, KV 503, KV 595.

TEACHERS/ COACHES

Christian Zacharias will be conducting the orchestra. A member of the Scharoun Ensemble Berlin will be present for coaching during the rehearsals as well.

ACCOMODATION

Hindemith Fondation in Blonay, Switzerland (in shared rooms of 2,3 or 4-persons)

FEE

Orchestra members will each receive a fee of 500CHF (A1-form is required).

Accommodation and 3 meals per day are provided for.

Travel costs must be borne by each musician him- or herself.

APPLICATION AND MORE INFORMATION

Zermatt Festival Academy - Direction

Anna v. Lüneburg

academy@zermattfestival.com

Mobile +49 (0) 177 589 7271